

V.Sridhar Overall 41 years experience

B.E. (Chemical Engineering) Graduate from Annamalai University 1976 batch. Started career at NDDB (National Dairy development Board) Anand, then Joined Voltas limited as project engineer in May 1980 in their Air conditioning & Refrigeration Division and worked at Ahmedabad, Mumbai, Chennai, Hyderabad, Bangalore and worked for 16 years. During stay at Voltas, had an opportunity to work with almost all leading Architects and Consultants in variety of Air conditioning and refrigeration projects including low temperature projects.

In 1996 May joined ETA Engineering Private Limited as the branch manager taking care off M&E operations at Chennai.

From July1998 to December 1999 worked with Bahwan Engineering Company LLC Muscat.

In December 1999 again rejoined ETA Engineering Private Limited as project Manager and was involved in TIDEL PARK, American International School and many other projects.

Since December 2002 practicing as HVAC& R Consultants in the name of Enervac Engineering Consultants and have carried out consultancy assignments to WIPRO, CMC Hospital, TCS, IIT Madras Research Park, and various leading architects supporting them in air conditioning design.

In 2004 have done air conditioning of BOSCH Nasik work shop, offices air cooling with Indirect Direct Evaporative Cooling (IDEC) system by using natural air and water?

Recent job of replacing 36 year old 400 TR HVAC systems for underground Idukki Hydro Electric Power plant directly for Kerala State Electricity Board at Moolamattom

Past President Chennai Chapter 2008-2009 and RD2 South in 2016-2017, currently part of ICP Committee and URJAVARAN core committee.